WANT GLEICHEN SEED GRAIN IN CHICAGO

John C. Buckley's Grain Brings Fame

Just to show the amount of good advertising Gleichen is deriving from the prizes won at the Provincial seed fair by John C. Buckley mention may be made of the fact that the other day he received a letter from a Mr. John Wilcox asking him to ship 15 bushels of his seed wheat and 25 bushels of oats to Chicago, Ill. The writer stated his neighbors would also like to get some of the seed.

In reply Mr. Buckley tells Mr. Wilcox he should also arrange to import some of our good soil and climate to Chicago in order to insure the best results from the seed he will ship if the transportation charges on such small quantities are not too high.

The amount of renown Mr. Buckley and Gleichen is obtaining from his seed grain is unlimited and it will work wonders in filling up this entire district with the most desirable class of farmers.

Got $12 in Prize Money
The Call would here correct an error in last issue and state Mr. Buckley got $12 in cash prizes, instead of $82. At the Provincial fair he got $50 with the Farm Crops Trophy and $18 as first for spring wheat. At the Gleichen fair he obtained $10 for first in spring wheat, $8 as first in oats and $6 as second in feed oats. This amount in prizes should make our farmers anxious to exhibit at the next fair.

Board of Trade Meeting

At a special meeting of the Board of Trade last Friday evening it was determined to ask the proper authorities to appoint Dr. J. T. Malcolm Hughes stock inspector for this district, it being pointed out the great difficulties the ranchers and farmers have been put to in the past in shipping their stock at the various places along the railway, some having to wait a week or more for the Calgary inspector to come down, owing to the fact that this district is much too large for one man to properly attend to.

The Board also decided to ask the C. P. R. to remove the stock yards further out of town and to enlarge them.

It being pointed out the great inconvenience the public has been put to in doing business through the Custom offices and the volume of business transacted at Gleichen and nearby points the board decided to ask the Government to establish a customs office at Gleichen.

MR. BEAUPRE'S FUNERAL

The funeral of the late Mr. V. J. Beaupre took place as announced in our last issue on Thursday afternoon, from his home to the Foresters' hall, where Father Simonin, of the South Camp Mission, conducted the beautiful and impressive Roman Catholic service, the deceased being a devote and faithful member of that church. After the service the largest procession ever seen in Gleichen wended its way to the cemetery where the last solemn rites were performed and the good man laid away in his last resting place.

The pallbearers were Messrs. D. Brereton, E. A. Wyndham, F. K. McKay, R. Landell's, D. C. Wishart, and E. Griesbach, each one being among the oldest friends of the deceased.

The floral offerings were most beautiful and numerous, the coffin, being densely covered and a very large basket being also filled to overflowing, among the many the following were noted: Heart, Mrs. V. J. Beaupre.

Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. E. Beaupre.

Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Marshall.

Cross, Mrs. J. Disbury.

Grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ren aud.

Heart, S. Oliver.

Spray, Mrs. J. B. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hume.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. R. Marshall.

Cross, E. A. Wyndham.

Anchor, Mr. and Mrs. Griesbach.

Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wishart.

Cross, Rev. Cannon Stocken.

Dr. and Mrs. Rose.

Spray, Mrs. W. Cosgrave.

Old Timers' Wreath, E. Griesbach.

E. Wyndham, W. James, J. Knudson.

C. Bray, C. Millie, Staff Sgt. McLeod.

D. Brereton, R. Landell, F. McKay, H. Scott, F. Vigar, E. Jones and J. Clark.

There were many present from all parts of this district and many others would have attended had they known in time.

Mr. G. Ariel, of Winnipeg, and Mr. A. Ariel, of Medicine Hat, brothers of Mrs. Beaupre, arrived in time for the ceremony.

Every possible effort was made to lighten the burden of the grief-stricken widow and family. All the business places were closed and business suspended to partly honor the pioneer of Gleichen, who never wearied in the up-building of the town and helping his fellowmen—one whose good work will continue to live as long as the town he founded. His was a useful, well spent life that will ever be remembered as cheerful and successful and all who knew him.

Express Their Gratitude

Mrs. V. J. Beaupre and family desire to convey their heartfelt thanks to the many friends who so kindly extended them sympathy and assistance in their late bereavement.

Miss Arnold proved a most entertaining hostess at a birthday party given in her honor at her home five miles east of town, on Monday evening, when some twenty-five of her young friends responded to her invitation and spent a most pleasant evening with games, singing and dancing. A dainty supper was provided and the birthday-cake was especially worthy of note, occupying a prominent place on the table and lit up with 19 candles. The cutting of the cake proved a most interesting ceremony, and each guest ate their portion with bated breath believing their destinies would be foretold by the variety of metal found therein. Among the special items of the evening's entertainment may be mentioned Miss McEwen's recitations and Mr. T. P. Fisher's comic songs. About 3:30 a. m. the guests took leave of their young hostess wishing her many happy returns and giving a number of ringing cheers.

Mrs. Pender and Mrs. Ostrander entertained a number of their young friends at a dance in the C. grove Block last Friday evening, when a most pleasant evening was spent. At midnight a very dainty luncheon was served and then dancing continued until about 3 a. m. Messrs. Pender and McPhee supplied excellent music for the occasion and judging by the singing of the happy couples the dance was one of the most enjoyable of the many given this season.

A Conservative convention is called for tomorrow—Friday night, in the Cosgrave Block, when it is said a candidate will be nominated to contest this riding in the coming Provincial elections. It is also stated E. Griesbach is working hard to get the nomination and will probably obtain it.

Once again The Call would advise our advertisers to bring in their copy by Monday noon as it is quite impossible to make satisfactory changes at the last moment and do justice to our readers.

A grand masquerade is to be given at Queenstown on Friday, March 5th, and a good time is assured.

FARMERS' UNION FOR STRATHMORE

Will Organize Saturday

The people of Strathmore and vicinity have arranged to hold a public meeting in the Colonization hall in that town at 1 p. m. on Saturday next, February 27th, with a view to organizing a branch of the Farmers' Union Association. A. L. Minto has been selected secretary of the meeting and arrangements have been made to have a speaker in attendance from one of the Unions.

Every farmer is requested to attend and as the aims and objects of the association are most commendable they will find it to their personal and mutual benefit to form a union.

A GOOD SURPLUS

Premier Bathford delivered the annual budget in the legislature Monday evening, and declared a surplus over the general expenditures of the province of $69,669.83. The total receipts had been $2,893,501.79, and the total general expenditure $2,823,831.96. The premier spoke for two hours and a half reviewing the work and expenditures of the various departments, and explaining the estimates laid on the table. Premier Bathford stated that he estimated the revenue for next year at $2,483,000. The total estimated expenditure shown by the estimates is $2,471,401.04, with a surplus of over $12,000.

Glorious weather.
Has spring come to stay?
Sunny Southern Alberta in all her glory.

Reserve seat tickets for the Bachelors Concert are for sale at A. R. Yates'.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig arrived in town yesterday to visit their friends. Mr. Craig was formerly proprietor of the Palace Hotel, but has been located at High River for more than a year past.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Marshall extend to them their most sincere sympathy in the loss of one of their twin daughters, Eva Mary, who departed this life early Sunday morning, February 21st, at the age of ten months and six days, the funeral taking place Monday afternoon. Mrs. Marshall's bereavement is particularly sad, having lost her baby and father within less than a week.

Miss Grace Bonner, ventriloquist and impersonator, gave a most pleasing and interesting entertainment in the Foresters' hall Monday evening. Owing to a counter private party attraction that evening the attendance was not as large as might have been expected, but many who heard the young lady do not hesitate to say that if she ever comes this way again they would not fail to attend. Miss Bonner as an entertainer is exceptionally good and while extremely amusing at times, there is also much that is serious and that goes toward uplifting the spirits of her auditors.

GLEICHEN'S MEMBER AT EDMONTON

(By our Edmonton Correspondent.)

Few men can show a more independent spirit than the member for Gleichen. Against the whole house last week Mr. Riley raised his voice in protest against chartering in railways.
The question arose over an extension of time for the Calgary and Knehill railway. The act granting the charter was passed two years ago and was introduced by Mr. Riley himself.
Nothing was done to carry out the terms of the charter by the company though people of the district through which it is proposed to run the railway are in acute need of railway facilities.

The strong speech made by the member for Gleichen is calculated to wake companies essaying to build to get a "move on". Although the motion for a six months hold was carried the speech of the member will have a whole some effect.

Mr. Riley has kept the wants of Gleichen before the government. He is a persistent applicant at the door of the Minister of Public Works and he is generally moderate, but always tenacious and consequently he is never refused and Gleichen has been fairly well treated in the matter of roads and bridges.
One of the greatest of these will be the opening of the road from Gleichen to the Red Deer River giving trading advantages to all the settlers south of the Red Deer River.

Mr. Riley has the assurance of the Minister of Public Works that the telephone system will be extended east to Gleichen early this season so that Langdon, Strathmore, Namska and all the towns along that line will be in communication with the rest of the Province and it is practically assured now that a railway from the north to Calgary will pass through Kne Hill, Carbo and Rosebud, thus giving one of the finest parts of the province much needed railway facilities and this has been strongly urged upon the Government by the member for Gleichen. Some railway must pass there, he says.

One of the reforms required in the school ordinance has been the ballot for trustee elections and through the representations of Mr. Riley this bid fair to be realized in an amendment to the school ordinance this year. He has also been one of the strongest supporters of wolf bounties, it is a matter of congratulation that the bounties have been renewed, dating from the first of January.

One of the measures that the member for Gleichen is urging very strongly just now on the Government is a herd law. The legislature will be called upon to draw up a suitable measure of this kind, one that will be acceptable to farmers and ranchers.

Queenstown Happenings

(From our own Correspondent.)

Early this week E. Kent was in the city.

This month Martin O'Conner is over at the Circle Ranch.

M. L. Hudson is staying pretty close to home this winter.

A. B. Penn is going to make things hum on his ranch this spring.

The Queenstown horsemen anticipate a general clean up on the 24th of May.

E. J. Daalman who is staying with G. Gray, is reported to be nearing the 200 lb. mark.

C. Dalton and Edward Thomas came down from Calgary recently. Mr. Dalton is looking younger than ever.

Sam Hellevang is ranching this cold weather. He has had several long drives down south lately and has found no place so inviting during the recent zero weather, as "beside the fire in the cheerful".

Andrew Oler said sometime ago that he couldn't dance, but from his various performances recently he seems to be getting bravely over that idea.

Steve Williams has been on the trail
a great deal lately, hauling out lumber for the new school house. Since his trip to the mine down south he has been quite insured to cold weather.

It is stated that the editors of the Calgary News and Eye Opener have not taken a drink together for ever so long.

It was fifty years ago last week since the Methodist church fired its first shot at the devil in B.C. Both are still here and living.—Greenwood Ledge.

The east has moved along ways west.
Upon Sundays you have to tap on the door in Nelson in order to get an opportunity to look at the bartender's discords.—Greenwood Ledge.

It does not take much of an argument to convince the man who is lost on a raft, out on the ocean, that "Back to the land" is a perfectly sane and reasonable proposition.

For the convenience of their clients
and surrounding Gleichen, Messrs Short, Ross & Selward, barristers and solicitors, have decided to open a branch of their law office at Gleichen, which one member of their firm can be consulted on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning of each week.

THE DOGS OF WAR.

More Than a Mere Figure of Speech in Remote Times.

The "dogs of war" is not a mere figure of speech. In remote times dogs were used for war purposes. Plutarch and Pliny relate many instances—i. e., of Agesilaus at the siege of Mantinea, of Cambyses in his expedition to Egypt, of the king of the Gerontians in regaining his throne. Aeneas (800 B. C.) tells of dogs that carried letters in their collars; also the Chabrians and Teutons kept dogs. These, however, were fighting dogs, justly dreaded by the Roman soldiers.

The Roman military author Vegetius reports that dogs were used in the fortified towers to make known by their barking the approach of the enemy and to keep the garrisons awake; also during the middle ages war dogs were used for guarding camps and bulwarks. Scotch bloodhounds were specially reputed for tracking escaped prisoners. They were also used for attacking the enemy's cavalry, mutilating the horses with the prongs and hooks of their coats of mail. To these counts firepots were attached, which set the camps on fire. In the days of Gnaeus and Murtien (1476) the battles started with a flight of Swiss dogs against Burgundian dogs, and at Murtien the Burgundian dogs were dismembered by their adversaries from the Alps. It is said that after the discovery of America war dogs slaughtered not less than 2,000 Indians.

The employment of dogs for fighting purposes continued in modern times. Emperor Charles V. (1518-1550) received from England 4,000 dogs as subsidiary forces against France. At Valence French and Spanish dogs joined battle, in which the latter remained victors. As late as in the seventeenth century war dogs were used as scouts against the Turks. In 1822 an assault on the Acropolis of Athens by the Greeks was frustrated by dogs. The French employed dogs in Tunis against Arabian tribes. In Mexico in 1804 the dogs of the Zacauteca volunteer corps proved the most terrible adversaries of the Mexican guerrillas until they were got rid of by poison. In the last Russo-Turkish war (1877-1878) the Russians employed war dogs both in Europe and in Asia. The Austrians and Hollanders also used trained dogs successfully to protect themselves against being surprised by the enemy, and to find their adversaries in the impenetrable thickets.

Today the dog is no longer employed as a fighter. He is trained to carry ammunition to the battlefield, to guard the outposts, prevent skirmishers from stealing at too close range, forward letters and, finally, as a sanitarian in finding the wounded after a battle.

The Occupant in the Rear.

"Is there a young lady by the name of Evans living in this house?" inquired the strange woman of the timid appearing man at the front door.

"Yes," returned he, with a suddenly respectful and serious demeanor. "She occupies the rear of this house, so you'd best step round to the rear door and knock gently, ma'am."

"I did, but no one answered."

"Ah, then, didn't you notice a sign on the door in the shape of a neat placard?" asked the man in tones of awe and admiration.

"Yes. The placard said 'Out.'"

"Then she's out. That's her sign, ma'am."

"Do you know when she will return?"

"No; we never know that, ma'am. In fact, she comes and goes whenever she takes the notion and wants none to interfere with her doings or habits in any way, shape or manner, ma'am."

"She's rather a mysterious and independent sort of person, I take it?"

"Well, rather. You see, ma'am, she's our cook!"

When Japan Cleans House.

The unexpected Japanese guest settled at the dismantled drawing room, made his way carefully between a broom and a pail of water, and, kicking aside a bar of soap that had nearly upset him, he said:

"You call this a housecleaning. Well, in Japan we'd call it nothing. We are required by law over there to have four housecleanings a year that are, indeed, housecleanings. Everything goes out in the street. Everything down to the last walk must be taken from every Japanese house four times a year and set out upon the sidewalk; then all must be thoroughly cleaned. Last of all government officials come and disinfect and fumigate the cleaned dwellings and the cleaned possessions. Japan is a strange sight on those four annual cleaning days. With all the furniture piled outside you'd think the Japanese lived in the streets instead of indoors."

How Macaroni is Made.

This is how macaroni is made: To every glutinous wheat flour is added a plentiful supply of dried eggs. Mixed with water, this becomes a dough, which is so thickly kneaded as to be difficult to impress with the fingers. Then it is carried to a round press perforated with holes, through which the dough is pressed by means of a heavy plate worked by a screw. The result is macaroni without holes in the sticks. The macaroni is made through a similar press, with the difference that a round piece of metal makes the central hole. As it issues in long, snaky ropes from the bottom of the press they are violently fanned to prevent them from sticking together and are afterward taken out into the open and laid on long bamboo poles to dry. Two or three days' exposure in the warm, sunny air of Italy makes the dough pipes hard and brittle and fit to use for food.
